TEACHER'S MESSAGES

To the students of school, firstly I would like to thank you for being such fantastic pupils and giving your all in the past 5 years with us.
There have been some good times, some bad times and some times when we all wanted to give up, however, you held it together, supported each other and came through the other side shining like stars in a night sky. We teachers cannot take all the credit for success' that you have had and will go on to have, you have proven yourselves to be grown up beyond your years and a throughly hard working group of people. You will face many challenges out there in the world, but I am positive that you will succeed no matter the obsticles placed in your path.
So I guess this is good bye, I will leave you with these last words of wisdom by William W Purkey "You've got to dance like there's nobody watching, Love like you'll never be hurt, Sing like there's nobody listening, And live like it's heaven on earth".
